The California Department of Tax and Fee Administration (CDTFA) collects and stores confidential information about taxpayers and has a responsibility under the law to protect this information from unauthorized access, use, and disclosure. Taxpayers may authorize the transmission of confidential information via unencrypted email or other unencrypted electronic transmission by providing written authorization to CDTFA. If authorization is provided, the confidential information will only be sent to the email address listed above.

The following statement will be included on each email:

Confidential information from the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration (CDTFA) – unauthorized use or disclosure is strictly prohibited by law. If you receive this email in error, please immediately notify CDTFA by replying to this email and delete this message from your device, without printing it, and without disclosing its contents to any person other than the sender or recipient. Persons who copy or disclose such confidential information are subject to applicable legal penalties.

To authorize the transmission of confidential information to you and/or your representative via unencrypted email or other unencrypted electronic transmission, please sign this CDTFA-82, Authorization for Electronic Transmission of Data, and provide it to a CDTFA representative. This authorization will remain in effect until rescinded in writing.

By signing, you acknowledge the following statement with respect to the account noted above:

I authorize the transmission of confidential or sensitive information via unencrypted email or other unencrypted electronic transmission. I understand that transmission via unencrypted email or other unencrypted electronic transmission is not secure and CDTFA is not responsible if confidential or sensitive information sent via email or any other unencrypted electronic transmission is accessed by third parties.
