CONTACT INFORMATION

If you have questions concerning this examination, or if you need reasonable accommodations, please contact the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration, Talent Acquisition Section by email at Exams@cdtfa.ca.gov.

GENERAL INFORMATION

EEO: The State of California is an equal opportunity employer to all, regardless of age, ancestry, color, disability (mental and physical), exercising the right to family care and medical leave, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, national origin, political affiliation, race, religious creed, sex (includes pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions), and sexual orientation.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

Drug Free Statement: It is an objective of the State of California to achieve a drug-free state workplace. Any applicant for state employment will be expected to behave in accordance with this objective because the use of illegal drugs is inconsistent with the law of the state, the rules governing civil service and the special trust placed in public servants.

Reasonable Accommodations: Candidates needing special testing arrangements due to a disability must mark the appropriate box on the application and/or contact the testing department.

Notices: For any examination, it is the candidate's responsibility to contact the Talent Acquisition Section three weeks after the final filing date if notification has not been received.

Competitive Examination: Possession of the entrance requirement(s) does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination will be compared with the performance of the others who take this test, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

Revision of Plan: The California Department of Tax and Fee Administration reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the department should any circumstances change during this examination administration. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules.

College Education: The qualifications meeting the requirement "Equivalent to graduation from college" means satisfaction of the requirements for the bachelor's degree from an accredited, recognized institution of higher education. This means the applicant must show receipt of a bachelor's degree or a letter from the college or university stating the applicant has met all of the academic requirements for graduation. Acceptable college course work must be from an accredited, recognized institution approved by the California Superintendent of Public Instruction under the provisions of California Education Code Section 94712.

Veterans' Preference: Veteran's preference credits will be awarded for all open competitive examinations, pursuant to government code section 18973.1 and 18973.5, effective January 1, 2014, as follows: 1) Any veteran, widow or widower of a veteran, or spouse of a 100 percent disabled veteran, who achieves a passing score in an entrance examination, shall be ranked in the top rank of the resulting eligibility list. Any veteran who has been dishonorably discharged or released is not eligible for veteran's preference; 2) An entrance examination is defined, under the law, as any open competitive examination; 3) Veterans preference is not granted once a person achieves permanent civil service status.

The California Department of Human Resources (CalHR) has information on how to apply for Veterans' Preference on their website at jobs.ca.gov and on the Application for Veterans' Preference form (CalHR 1093). Additional information is also available at the Department of Veterans Affairs website at <https://www.calvet.ca.gov/>
